Description

A Very Good Quality George III Period, 18th Century, Mahogany Chest, Retaining Rich Colour Throughout, With Exceptionally Well Figured Top Over Two Short And Three Long Drawers, Retaining Original Brass Swan Neck Handles, Raised On Original Shaped Bracket Feet. This good quality and functional georgian chest of drawers is very much typical of the mid 18th century. It boasts construction using high grade timbers and is well made. Despite being relatively plain in its overall design it is also actually quite attractive with the mahogany having a good rich colour and the top itself being exceptionally well figured. It also boasts original swan neck handles and is still raised on its original shaped bracket feet, both features worthy of note. Perfect for use in a variety of different rooms around the home this chest is incredibly functional and is still as fit for purpose as the day it was made. We believe this chest is great value for something so beautiful which offers so much function and will go on to be used and utilised for many years to come by the eventual purchaser. As with all items we offer for sale this georgian mahogany chest has been examined in our work...
