Description

A lovely Fulham Pottery lemonade beaker decorated in the Arts and Crafts style with applied slip, beadwork and incisions using a blue and brown colour palette. It has an all over leaf and vine design around a central cartouche featuring a HAH monogram. It is dated 1916 to the main body of the beaker, perhaps to commemorate a wedding or special event. Incised signatures to the base "C.J.W. 1916 CJ Fulham". It is in very good condition. The colours have remained bright and vibrant and there are no major damages or restoration. There are some minor surface marks and small scuffs on some of the raised beads but nothing detrimental and it displays beautifully. Approximate Measurements : Top Diameter : 4" / 10cm Height : 5 3/4" / 15cm. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
