Description

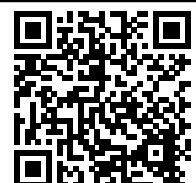

Birmingham 1932 English hallmarked set of 4 very unusual Art Deco period solid silver coffee or tea spoons with Bakelite terminals representing each of the four suits of cards (hearts, diamonds, spades, clubs). The Bakelite terminals are centrally mounted on the plain stems, so on whichever side the spoon rests, they are perfectly visible as seen. With pretty shell bowls, they are presented in the original fitted case. Made by Marson and Jones. Size-3.75 inches long by 7/8 inches wide. Weight-40 grams spoons, 115 grams with case for shipping. A great gift for the bridge, whist, or cards player. In very good condition overall, with just some minor age cracks to the Bakelite. An unusual set, and very iconic of the Art Deco period.
