Description

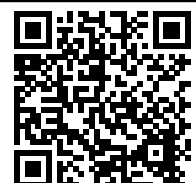

A fabulous vintage 18ct rose gold solitaire diamond ring, dating to the 1950s. This elegant ring features a brilliant-cut diamond of approximately 0.65 carats, measuring 5.4mm in diameter. The stone is bright and lively, displaying excellent sparkle and clarity (SI), with a warm H/I colour. The diamond is securely set in a classic eight-claw setting, beautifully enhanced by bifurcated foliate shoulders that add a graceful and refined touch. The ring head measures 7mm across and stands 4.1mm proud of the shank. This is a wonderfully crafted piece with a substantial weight of 5 grams. It tests as 18ct gold and is offered in excellent condition. Circa 1950s Finger size: L½ (UK) / 6 (US) – easily resizable. Supplied in the presentation box shown. Our reference: 22177. A timeless and romantic choice, this ring would make a perfect vintage engagement ring.
