Description

A fabulous George I Oak Chest On Stand of beautiful light oak colour, in very good original condition throughout and retaining the original handles, locks and escutcheons. The cabriole legs are original with only small historical repairs to the base of the back two. The original Oak drawer linings are in perfect clean condition. This is an early example having the lovely chased brass handles, lip moulded drawer fronts and nicely shaped high freeze to the base. Circa 1715
