Description

A good small Edwardian oak desk dating from circa 1910. Featuring a solid aged oak top over a bank of 4 drawers each with original brass cup handles alongside a kneehole space. With interesting details, the sides are panelled, it has shaped spandrels and the back is joined by an arched cross stretcher. Above the drawers is a pull out slide, offering extra workspace. Good warm colour to the beautifully figured oak. This piece is small so would also work well as a side table or fit snugly into an alcove. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Solid and sturdy, with good original colour and patina. Some small splits to the oak top.
