Description

A beautiful pair of late Victorian drop earrings, finely hand crafted in 15ct gold and set with amethyst and natural pearl. Each earring is set to the top with three lustrous natural pearls, from which a rich purple teardrop amethyst is gracefully suspended. The combination is both delicate and striking – a true example of period elegance. The earrings are fitted with traditional screw-back fittings, suitable for non-pierced ears, and are both secure and comfortable when worn. These charming earrings display beautifully and add a refined touch of antique glamour.
