Description

A stunning Edwardian amethyst fringe necklace, hand crafted in solid 9ct yellow gold, dating from around 1910. This elegant antique necklace features nine beautifully graduated pear-shaped amethysts in soft greyish purple tones, suspended delicately from a classic cable link chain. The amethysts are exquisitely cut and catch the light wonderfully, creating a graceful drape across the neckline. This refined piece is finished with a traditional barrel clasp. Key Features: Set with nine pear-shaped amethysts, graduating from approx. 15mm x 10mm to 10mm x 6.5mm. Length: 18 inches (46cm). Stamped 9ct by the traditional barrel clasp. Date: Edwardian period, circa 1910. Weight: 10 grams. In exceptional original condition. Supplied in the quality presentation box shown. A graceful and timeless example of Edwardian jewellery, perfect for collectors or special occasions. Our Ref: 23269.
