Description

An elegant late Georgian pine frame featuring a beautifully shaped border and a floral print. Its refined proportions and warm wood tones make it a magnificent decorative piece to hang in a country house hallway, a principal dining room, or as part of a curated gallery wall. The frame is defined by its highly intricate, hand-carved detailing that showcases classic period craftsmanship. It comes complete with a charming floral print, though its versatile design means it could easily be fitted with a mirror plate or an alternative piece of fine art to suit your interior. The piece is in excellent condition. It has been beautifully preserved and is ready for immediate use and placement in the home. Dimensions: * Height: 94.5cm * Width: 82cm
