Description

Spectacular and rare Cloisonne Enamel Lidded Pedestal 'Stem' Bowl made in Nagoya circa 1860 - late Edo period. Attributed to Kaji Tsunekichi * (1803–83) who was responsible for the renaissance of Japanese cloisonne. Extremely high-quality cloisonné with brass wire and various coloured enamels. The enamel decoration "miniaturised" and of similar scale to the finest of cloisonne-enamel "ojime" detailed bead work. Body is decorated mainly with patterns of Karakusa foliage and Kiku flowers. Square and arrow shaped panels surrounding the lid, bowl and stem, filled with traditional Japanese geometrical patterns of: Kojitsunagi, Shippo, Asanoha. Foot and pedestal fully decorated with cloud motif. This is a very rare item of finest detail and museum quality. Superb. [Stand not included]. Condition: Excellent. One small dent area to side of bowl with enamel loss (as shown in photos). Dimensions (approx): Height = 9.5cm Diameter = 20.5cm * In the 1830s, Kaji Tsunekichi of Nagoya obtained a piece of Cloisonné enamel and deconstructed it in order to examine how it had been made. He then reworked the piece to produce a small dish with wired enamel decoration. By the ...
