Description

A good example of a small English wine glass dating from the late 18th / early 19th century. It has an air twist stem and a large round foot. The bowl is etched with a hunting scene showing a horse rider on one side looking inwards and on the opposite side is another rider blowing a hunting horn. It is a very good quality glass with a good weight. It is in very good condition for its age and displays well. There are no cracks or damages to the glass. Some marks on the underside of the foot as to be expected but nothing detrimental. Approximate Measurements : Height : 6" / 15cm Base Diameter : 3 1/4" / 8.5cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
