Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive antique 1800s 18ct yellow gold vinaigrette; an addition to our collection of gold boxes and cases. This exceptional, fine and impressive antique 18ct yellow gold vinaigrette has an oval form. The surface of this impressive antique vinaigrette are encompassed with punched circular motifs amidst pinstruck decoration. This gold box is fitted with a hinged hallmarked cover, ornamented with a continuation of punched decoration. The hinged cover opens to allow access to the original, hinged pierced decorated grille. An 18k gold vinaigrette box is a rare and refined gift, prized by collectors of fine antiques and admirers of historic craftsmanship. Its intricate detail and compact elegance make it a timeless piece for display or meaningful gifting. NOTE: The initials displayed within the maker's marks, in addition to the standardisation of the surround could pertain to a multitude of antique smallwork silversmiths; these silversmiths include George Love, George Lowe and George Lonstaffe. Condition This 19th century antique gold box is an exceptional gauge of gold, exceptional quality and in exceptional condition. The hallmarks struck to...
