Description

A tall, slim antique pine cupboard in good condition for its age. It features a top drawer with original brass drop handles and two cupboard doors below, opening fully to reveal three slightly adjustable internal shelves. The lock on the door functions well. Currently in bare wood, it is available for £500 as-is, or £577 if you'd like it wax-finished. Please let us know in advance if you'd prefer the bare wood option and plan to collect—we'll ensure any adjustments are completed before your arrival. The cupboard stands on front bun feet with square rear supports. The right-hand door requires minor adjustment, which is included in both pricing options.
