Description

Antique Georgian Mahogany Inlaid Bow Front Sideboard – Circa 1790 Add timeless elegance to your home with this exquisite Georgian Mahogany Bow Front Sideboard, a fine example of late 18th-century craftsmanship. Made circa 1790, this beautifully proportioned piece is constructed from rich, warm-toned mahogany and features striking satinwood and boxwood inlays in classical oval and fan motifs. Features: * Bow front design with gently curved lines offering both aesthetic charm and functional space. * Three drawers (two deep drawers one fitted with individual sections for bottles and short drawer to centre) provide ample storage, ideal for dining room linens, silverware, or as a sophisticated hallway statement piece. * Original brass lion's head ring pulls and escutcheons add an authentic period touch. * Tapered legs ending in spade feet offer a refined, elegant stance. Condition: Good antique condition with minor age-related wear consistent with over two centuries of use. Polished and ready for display.
