Description

A truly charming and elegant vintage diamond cluster ring, beautifully crafted in rich 22 carat yellow gold and fully hallmarked London 1950, bearing the maker's initials MD. At the heart of this delightful piece lies a sparkling old brilliant cut diamond, encircled by a further eight bright and lively brilliant cut diamonds, forming a classic flower or daisy motif. The diamonds are set in contrasting white gold, enhancing their brilliance, and sit atop a finely scalloped yellow gold basket. The ring features graceful knife-edge shoulders, adding to its timeless appeal and refined silhouette. A perfect choice for an engagement ring, or simply to mark a special occasion.
