Description

This unusual prayer-rug with pointed mihrab - was made by Timuri tribes in western Afghanistan during the last quarter of the 19th century. There are several small areas, particularly in the central 'leaf' pattern, where reweaves were done many years ago and the colour has faded slightly. Having said that, this is an unusual and collectable rug with very good shiny wool and excellent vegetable colours. Size: 1.32m x 1.00m (4' 4" x 3' 3").
