Description

A tall, elegant pine cupboard dating from around 1890, featuring a shallow full-width drawer at the top and two generously sized cupboard doors beneath. Above the drawer, you'll find attractive period detailing that adds character and charm. Inside, the cupboard is divided by a central vertical partition, with adjustable shelving on either side. We're happy to modify the shelf configuration to suit your needs—just let us know. Overall, the piece is in good condition for its age. The door mechanism requires a small adjustment to ensure it locks properly. Currently offered in bare wood for £590, or £667 if you'd prefer it waxed and restored. Please note: This cupboard is a solid piece and does not dismantle, so please ensure it will fit through your access points before purchase. Dimensions: Height: 67.5" Width: 44.5" Depth: 18" Internal Depth: 14.5"
