Description

Pair of Impressive Gothic Revival Oak Hall Benches Item Code: S25-338 An exceptional pair of late 19th century Gothic Revival oak hall benches, each of impressive scale and presence. The high backs are adorned with carved blind fretwork quatrefoils beneath a bold cresting rail, all above vertical fielded panels. Deep solid oak seats rest on square supports joined by stretchers, offering superb strength and architectural impact. These benches would make a magnificent statement in a grand hallway, gallery, or entrance space—striking both individually and as a symmetrical pair. * Gothic Revival, circa 1880 * Richly patinated solid oak * Carved pierced quatrefoil panels and moulded details * Tall panelled backs and stretcher bases * Sold as a pair Dimensions (each bench): Width: 293 cm Depth: 77 cm Height: 177 cm
