Description

A large and impressive antique Victorian brass coal bin or log bucket By William Soutter & Sons of Birmingham dating from circa 1880. In Adam revival taste, this imposing urn shaped brass fuel bin features unusual grotesque ring carry handles and stands on leaf cast hairy paw feet. It has a removable cover with shaped handle which lifts to reveal plenty of storage inside for coal, logs, kindling etc. Stamped with makers mark to base for William Soutter & Sons Co., who were established 1760 at New Market St, Birmingham. Construction Brass Condition Report General wear commensurate with age. Lightly polished with good patina to the brass. Dimensions Max Width: 36cm Max Depth at Sides: 40cm Height to Handle: 55cm
