Description

Antique Jaeger LeCoultre chrono pocket watch, J W Benson. The chronograph has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement carries the brevet number 5682 underneath the dial. This relates to an 1892 patent in the name of LeCoultre & Cie, for, "safety lever for chronograph-counters, called "instantaneous". It also has the name of the original importer, Baume. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover which has the personal inscription, "Edward Dangerfield, from Daisy Ridley", and also, "Watch maker by Warrant to The Queen, examined by J W Benson, 62 & 64 Ludgate Hill, London, Swiss made". The watch measures 53mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is 935 silver and there are Swiss hallmarks inside both of the case backs. The front and back of the case is in good condition. There is some unevenness around the side but not too detrimental. The watch has an acrylic lens... it has a small scuff, only around 1mm in diameter but otherwise in lovely condition. The dial is in lovely condition. Two subsidiary dials, one for constant seconds and the other to record up to 60 minutes. Pin-set hands. The chronograph is oper...
