Description

Victorian Walnut Open Bookcase with Enclosed Ends – c.1870 Item Code: S26-134 A handsome Victorian walnut open bookcase dating to circa 1870, featuring a central open section flanked by two panelled cupboard ends. The centre offers three fixed shelves ideal for books or display, framed by simple mouldings and crowned with a stepped cornice. The flanking cupboards with arched moulded panels add visual symmetry and provide enclosed storage, all set on a sturdy plinth base. The warm grain and mellow patina of the walnut enhance its timeless character, making it a highly functional and elegant piece for both traditional and contemporary interiors. Key Features: * Original Victorian design, c.1870 * Central open bookcase with three fixed shelves * Flanked by enclosed end cupboards with arched panels * Rich, warm walnut with attractive grain and patina * Stepped moulded cornice and solid plinth base * Versatile storage for books, decor, or media Dimensions: * Width: 183 cm * Depth: 39.5 cm * Height: 132 cm
