Description

An impressive Dresden style porcelain figure, probably Thuringia or Italian Capodimonte, circa 1900. Standing 51cm tall, the figure is hand-painted and richly gilded, decorated with blue enamel flowers, and dressed in a theatrical masquerade costume. Excellent modelling; face and hands finely detailed. Minor loss to tip of spyglass only. No restoration, no overpainting. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. It is important to note that shipping costs include labour, packaging and postage.
