Description

A charming antique 20th-century oak dresser, showcasing classic design and craftsmanship. This well-proportioned piece stands on sturdy square legs and features a two-tiered upper section with open shelving—ideal for displaying crockery, glassware, or decorative items. Below, the base comprises two drawers and a double-door cupboard, offering practical enclosed storage with a single internal shelf. The cupboard doors are adorned with elegant linenfold carving, adding a touch of traditional detail and texture to the piece. Retaining all its original knob handles, the dresser is crafted from quality oak and displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout. Presented in good condition, this dresser comes apart into two sections for ease of transport and would make a delightful addition to any home, blending beautifully into both period and rustic-inspired interiors.
