Description

A Large Victorian Mahogany Chest of Drawers This is a good solid chest of drawers, the five drawer version like this one is becoming a lot more difficult to source these days, there are 2 short drawers over 3 graduated drawers, the bottom drawer, (the blanket drawer) is extra deep and was once used to store blankets. The chest has a high edge to the top and it stands on a small plinth which disguises the blanket drawer. This is a good sturdy chest of drawers and the mahogany has a good rich colour, there are a few signs of its age but it is a good sound piece The chest stands 42" high, 19" deep and is 41" long HW163
