Description

Here is a fabulous little Victorian stool, ebonised with gilt trim to the rim of the seat and the turned legs. Standing 34cm tall, 28cm diameter across the seat and 27cm across the widest point at the base, this little gem has a wonderful patina with nearly 200 years of love evident over its surface. Check out the photos to make sure that this surface wear is for you - personally I feel that it adds to its appearance and charm. Please don't hesitate if I can provide any further information or photographs. I provide free delivery across mainland UK, and am very happy to help with quotes for shipping abroad.
