An oil on canvas entitled "Lone Fisherman" by Phyllis Morgans. A charming painting by this Suffolk Artist. which we have had cleaned and re-lined. The gilded wood frame is the original. Signed. The size of the canvas without frame is: 56cm X 46cm BIOGRAPHY. Phyllis Morgans lived at Walberswick, Suffolk and was the wife of Dr W M Morgans FRSC. She trained at St Martin's School of Art, London. Her career started in graphic art when she became a fashion artist and designer. Her love of portraiture took her into the field of oils and, in turn, led her to painting landscapes, seascapes, flowers etc. in all types of media. She was awarded the Freedom of the "Worshipful Company of Painters" and was a member of the "Royal Glasgow Institute of Fine Art". Her work had resulted in many awards including the winning of a national contest organised by the magazine "She" and the emblem of the "Tradescant Trust" was designed by her. She was chosen to represent the "Royal Society of Marine Artists", the "Royal Institute of Oil Paintings", the "Industrial Painting Group" and contemporary artists in municipal galleries and abroad. Her work had also been favourably reviewed in the "J..."
