Description

This exquisite antique 20th century oak hall bench / window seat is a stunning example of fine craftsmanship and quality. Standing on beautifully turned legs, the bench features three elegantly turned separations along the top, adding both charm and structural interest. With gorgeous oak grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, this rare and desirable two-seater piece combines practicality with timeless style. In great condition, it offers a perfect blend of comfort and classic design, making it an exceptional addition to any home seeking a unique and elegant seating solution.
