Description

Original George Armfield (1808-1893) Terriers Hunting Oil Painting Brief Description: This is a superb quality original 19th-century Oil on Canvas Painting depicting three Terrier Dogs hunting beside a Rabbit hole within an extensive English landscape setting. Attributed to the world-renowned dog artist George Armfield (1808-1893). The attention to detail throughout this work is exceptional. The terriers are beautifully portrayed, and the distant landscape is equally impressive. The work is mounted within a wonderful quality (later) gilt scrolled frame, which suits the work fantastically. Attributes: Attributed to George Armfield No visible signature Circa: 1860-1870 Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in an overall excellent original condition commensurate with age.
