Description

Antique silver Omega pocket watch and chain. The watch has a stem-winding movement, identified as by Omega, which is working nicely. To confirm that it is indeed an Omega movement, there is a brevet number underneath the dial, CH8760, which relates to an 1894 application in the name of Louis Brandt, founder of Omega. In confirmation by Jérôme Jr Monnat, CEO of West End Watch Company, "West End Watch was purchasing watches bearing its brand name from several historical brands such as Longines, Cyma, Tissot, Mido, Omega, IWC, Aubry, etc." The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover... there are a couple of scratches to this inner cover. The watch measures 42mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the loop. The case is silver and there are Continental marks inside both of the case backs for 935 silver. The front and back of the case have engine turned detail. The front of the case is in lovely condition. There is a small indentation to the side of the case and unevenness and rubbing to the hinged case back. The acrylic lens is in good condition. The dial is signed West End Watch Co, Sowar, Prima. The name Sowar was registered by the West End Watch Co fo...
