Description

This is a remarkable collectors quality unrestored example of the Legendary manual winding Omega 266 from 1955. The only work we have carried out is to service the movement and give the case a light polish with a soft cloth. The solid 9ct gold case is 34mm in diameter excluding the original crown, a full size gents. The case edges are sharp and crisp the watch looks like it was kept hidden away in a drawer and rarely worn. The movement is the legendary Omega calibre 266, Omegas greatest manual winding movement. It has been freshly serviced and is currently running at plus 5 seconds per day, not bad for a 70 year old watch. The dial is totally original and perfect it has had no restoration whatsoever. The hands are matching gold. The hallmarks and movement serial number indicate that this watch was made in 1955. Its the most original and perfect unrestored and complete example you will ever see. It comes with its original solid 9ct gold Omega buckle with matching hallmarks from the same year. Its original tan leather strap with original spring bars is included, we have fitted the closest match we could find to the original tan strap but we can fit almost any c...
