Description

A stunning Victorian 1890s quadruple glass epergne vase with a silver plated base/holder and four uranium glass vases. Made in Vaseline/uranium yellow glass, which glows bright green in UV light. Also has white opalescent vertical ribbing. Most likely made by one of the British glass factories, such as John Walsh, Richardson or Thomas Webb. Offered in very good order, some wear to the plate consistent with age, the glass vases are all in very good condition. Standing cm in height,
