Description

Antique 1.00ct Old Brilliant Cut Diamond Solitaire Ring – Edwardian Platinum Engagement Ring c.1915 A breathtaking expression of early 20th-century elegance, this antique platinum solitaire ring is the very embodiment of timeless romance. Expertly hand crafted around 1915, the ring features a mesmerising old brilliant cut diamond, weighing approximately 1.00 carat. With its soft, rounded facets and gently domed top, the stone glows with a fire and charm unique to this antique cut. The diamond is nestled in a finely pierced crown setting, its shoulders and gallery adorned with scrolling detail and milgrain edging—true to the refined artistry of the Edwardian to early Art Deco period. The platinum mount adds a cool, elegant contrast that flatters the stone's bright clarity and warm H colour. This exquisite ring would make a deeply romantic and meaningful engagement ring—an heirloom to be cherished for generations. Details: Old brilliant cut diamond: approx. 6.6mm across x 3.5mm Deep (circa 1.00 carat) Diamond grade: H colour, SI1 clarity – bright and full of fire Head diameter: 8.5mm, stands 7.3mm high Size: P½ (UK) / 8 (USA) – easily resizable Stamped 'Platinum' ...
