Description

A magnificent antique Edwardian marquetry inlaid oak bureau dating from circa 1910. In beautifully figured solid oak with good colour and patina, profusely inlaid with ebony and satinwood marquetry inlay in the 17th Century Flemish taste. It has 2 small drawers above 1 large drawer, the fronts carved and inlaid and fitted with brass pear drop handles. The drawers are all oak lined and have brass locks and come with a key which also works for the fall. The fall has a beautifully figured front with applied carvings and inlay and drops down on brass arms to reveal a writing surface and fitted interior with pigeon holes along with 4 small drawers and 1 cupboard. It stands on carved feet united by cross stretchers. A really unusual and good quality statement piece. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good condition. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Working lock and key to drawers and fall. Some slight movement to base. Dimensions: Height: 108cm Max Width: 99cm Max Depth: 51cm Height to Fall: 76cm
