Description

This elegant Victorian pier cabinet showcases fine craftsmanship and timeless design. Beautifully ebonised and richly inlaid, it features striking ormolu mounts that enhance its luxurious appearance. The cabinet has two glazed doors opening to a shelved interior, perfect for displaying treasured books, porcelain, or decorative objects. Dating from the mid to late 19th century, this piece reflects the sophistication of Victorian furniture design, with intricate detailing, a polished ebonised finish, and contrasting marquetry inlay. The ormolu mounts add a touch of refinement, making this cabinet an ideal addition to both traditional and eclectic interiors. Whether placed in a hallway, drawing room, or study, this Victorian ebonised pier cabinet offers both style and practicality. A fine example of antique furniture, it would appeal to collectors, decorators, and anyone seeking an authentic period piece to elevate their home décor. circa 1870
