Description

Lovely colours on this antique Heriz carpet woven in the early 20th century. The pale ivory corners lift the whole palette of red tones and deep blues. Some wonderful green dyes can be seen too, golden yellows have been used as well. It is getting increasingly rare to find antique Persian Heriz carpets of this high quality in such good original condition. Ideal for a drawing room, dining room, study or entrance hall, included in the price is our sturdy underlay, helping sit safely and flat on any floor type, enhancing its appearance too. The wool pile is lush and in great order all over on this 130 year old stunning carpet. Request a home visit to view this stunning antique Heriz carpet in the privacy of your own home. We travel all over the UK showing our carpets and rugs in-situ, a professional service we have offered for the last 30 years. You are very welcome to book in a showroom visit if preferred, we are open Monday to Saturday 9.30-5.30pm by appointment. As it is best to make a time to make sure someone is here to help you and show you this Heriz carpet, as occasionally we close for home visits. You can also reserve this carpet online too, so you do n...
