Description

A late 19th-century oak bookcase carved with Green Man motifs and floral detailing. This two-part cabinet comprises a glazed top section with three shelves and a lower cupboard with twin panelled doors. The sides and frieze are carved with scrolling foliage and fruit garlands, while the doors feature bold acanthus-leaf carvings centred with Green Man masks. The interior is lined in plank wood and the upper cabinet retains its original glass. English, circa 1880.
