Description

This elegant Edwardian pendant, dating to around 1910, is a beautifully handcrafted piece set with a rich purple oval amethyst, framed by a delicate foliate border adorned with four tiny flowers, each centred with a lustrous seed pearl. Suspended from a classic 9ct gold trace link chain with a traditional barrel clasp, this pendant has a timeless charm and looks truly beautiful when worn. Measurements: Pendant: 1½" (4cm) including bale x 1" (2.5cm) wide Amethyst: 13.5mm x 9.5mm Chain length: 16½" (42cm) Combined weight: 4.5 grams Hallmarks: Both pendant and chain are stamped for 9ct gold. Condition: Good antique condition. There is a slight dent to the pendant and a solder repair to the chain—both discreet and not noticeable when worn. Please see the final two photographs for reference. Presentation: Supplied in the box shown.
