Description

For your consideration is this hugely stylish cocktail cabinet. This is a fantastic piece of Art Deco furniture, and its internal features prove to be an incredibly appealing feature. Originating England and dating to the 1930's. A cloud shaped half circle drum top sits upon a larger duplicate base and offers real kerb appeal. Still retaining their original bakelite handles. The beautifully presented burl walnut has a superb pattern of grain. The interior is a blonde satin wood with chrome fittings. The upper doors open to reveal a glamorous and well fitted all mirror interior, the mirror has some decorative engraving. There is also an interior shelf. Between the top & base is a pull out mirrored sliding shelf, offering extra space for serving. The base section has a very generous space for housing bottled drinks. The base doors continue to exhibit fantastic burl walnut graining, with original bakelite handles. The condition is great having been through our workshops and professionally fully restored to showroom condition. FREE UK TWO MAN DELIVERY
