Description

This antique 20th century Arts and Crafts side table is a rare and highly desirable example of classic craftsmanship. Made from solid golden oak, the table is of fine quality and displays a beautiful simplicity typical of the Arts and Crafts movement. It stands on square legs with a useful lower shelf for additional storage or display, all firmly constructed for lasting durability. The table showcases stunning oak grain and a warm golden colour throughout, enhancing its natural character and appeal. Very well built and in great condition, this piece offers both functionality and timeless design. A perfect addition to any home, whether used as a lamp table, side table, or decorative accent in a traditional or contemporary interior.
