Description

A lovely Edwardian tabletop stationery cabinet made from walnut. It has a sloped front with a brass escutcheon and it comes with a working key. The front opens to reveal a fitted interior with various letter racks, a pen tray and one small ink bottle. The interior of the sloped front is fitted with a nice inset green baize which doubles as a writing surface when the box is open. It is in good condition for its age and the wood has a lovely warm patina. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few small knocks and marks nothing detrimental and it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
