Description

Vintage 0.85ct Diamond Solitaire Ring – 18ct White Gold & Platinum Engagement Ring c.1930 A timeless symbol of devotion, this elegant vintage solitaire engagement ring is a fine example of 1930s design—refined, enduring, and full of quiet sophistication. Crafted in 18 carat white gold and platinum, the ring is set with a stunning old brilliant cut diamond of approx. 0.75 carat, securely held in a classic eight-claw setting. Each shoulder is adorned with three brilliant cut accent diamonds, adding subtle sparkle and balance to the design. Whether chosen as an engagement ring or a special gift, this ring has a noble simplicity and grace that speaks to lasting love. A personal inscription dated 1.1.40 remains inside the band—a poignant reminder of past romance—but can be removed if desired. This beautiful ring wears beautifully on the hand, with an elevated setting that allows the central diamond to shine from every angle.
