Description

A beautiful and elegant mid 18th Century Oak Lowboy of glowing light Oak colour and patina. Having the original decorated rocco handles apart from one replacement drop. The well figured top with caddy mould to the edge, drawer fronts with Mahogany cross grain banding and fret work frieze nicely shaped and pierced. Standing on wonderfully shaped cabriole legs with carved slipper foot, having lost no height with the full pad to the base remaining in place. A well drawn piece of great colour, in exceptional original condition.
