Description

This is an exceptional 19th century Elm monastery table. The table came from outside of Florence Italy. The table is full of character and is totally original. The top is thick elm planks, one side is a long single plank and the other is made up of 3 smaller pieces, all full of patina and colour. The stretchered base makes this a great casual dining table or central island in a kitchen for prepping food on. The table is double sided and complete with 8 useable drawers. The historic worm has all been treated and the table is solid condition. Plenty of room for 10-12 sitters. Height 82cm Length 301cm Depth 83cm Price includes UK mainland delivery
