Description

A lovely pair of Italian School oil on oval panel Florentine carved giltwood framed paintings, early 19th Century in date. One a self portrait of the artist after Peter Paul Rubens (1577-1640), and the companion piece a self portrait of the artist after Titian. They are both beautifully framed in the original carved giltwood Florentine frames, decorated with acanthus leaf, berry and trailing flowers. Add some classical elegance to your home with this charming pair of paintings. Condition: In excellent condition the paintings and frames having been delicately cleaned in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
