Description

A set of 6 elm, ash and beech country windsor dining chairs and carver, dating from the late 19th century. Comprised of 5 chairs and single carver, this set features attractively figured solid timbers throughout, coupled with quirky natural charm. Solid curved top rails sit over ring turned slats with central block. Saddled elm seats, raised on ring turned splayed legs supported by H-stretcher. The carver with open shaped arms with ring turned supports. A charming set of dining chairs, full of the character that only natural aging can create. The carver in particular is a wonderful example of what time can do, which simply cannot be replicated. As you can see, time has given it a unique stance, and yet, it is still perfectly useable and a functioning chair. The set is in a very good and original condition, without damages or repairs. Very well presented and ready for use. Dimensions: The carver armchair measures approximately 90.5 cm (35.625") tall, 54 cm (21.25") wide, and 51.5 cm (20.25") deep. The seat height is approximately 44.5 cm (17.5"). The chairs measure approximately 83.5 cm (32.875") tall, 44.5 cm (17.5") wide, and 44 cm (17.25") deep. The seat height is a...
