Description

This is a set of six Theresienthal enamelled cordial glasses, manufactured in Bavaria, Germany, and dating from the beginning of the 20th century, c1910. The glasses are in excellent condition for their age. They show minimal age related wear and tear commensurate with use. The glasses measure 4.5 cm (1.8 inches) in diameter across the bowl rims. The glasses are 14.5 cm (5.8 inches) in height. The bowls are enamelled with flower heads enamelled with gilding when viewed from above. The bowl rim and foot rim show the remains of gilding. The bowls are ogee in shape and lead to green glass stems and conical feet which measure 5 cm (2 inches) in diameter. There are two examples of three different designs within the set of six. There are no chips, cracks, significant scratches or any evidence of restoration. Each glass weighs only 50 g. (< 2 oz.).
