Description

An exceptional mahogany display cabinet featuring a parquet floor, by F. Sage & Co Ltd, London, and presented in excellent condition. Beautifully constructed and finished on all sides, this piece can stand freely or sit comfortably against a wall. Of rounded rectangular form, the cabinet offers glazed panels to the front, back, and sides, allowing light to flood through and highlight displayed objects to full effect. Its bow-fronted glass sides enhance the sense of refinement and visual balance. The single door, fitted with its original brass escutcheon and decorative tasselled key, opens to reveal three fully adjustable glass shelves, offering generous space for showcasing treasured items. The cabinet is raised on short shaped legs with spade feet, lending a light and elevated stance. F. Sage & Co. Ltd, London, a known manufacturer and shopfitter active in the late 19th to early 20th century. Sage & Co. specialised in high-quality cabinetry and bespoke interiors, often supplying shop fittings and display furniture for chemists, jewellers, and other fine retailers.
