Description

A beautiful Scottish antique silver and agate brooch or kiltpin. Probably made in Edinburgh around 1860, it is unmarked. The agates are Montrose, carnelian and blood stones, there is a citrine on top and one on the end. The silver is intricately engraved and there is a silver thistle half way up the body. The brooch is in excellent condition with no visible damage. A very useable piece and collectable too. WEIGHT; 15 grams approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
