Description

A lovely miniature apprentice-made mahogany chest of drawers, dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It is a charming piece with two short over two long drawers, each with white ceramic knobs. It has its original painted faux mahogany finish which has worn and cracked in places giving an attractive aged finish. It is in good original condition and has a nice patina. There are some general signs of age and use, some minor marks, knocks and a small chip on the top corner (see photo) but nothing detrimental and overall it displays well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £10
