Description

A lovely small oak tilt-top wine table dating from the early 19th Century. It has a circular planked top set on a turned support with tripod splayed legs and pad feet. It is a good quality piece with a nice rich colour and it has its original blacksmith made catch. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy with a good level top. There are signs of age and use, some minor marks and wear on the top surface and a few knocks around the base but nothing detrimental. There has been a small circular repair to the top where presumably a knot has been but overall it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
